Founded by George C. Randolph Jr. in 1992, the Randolph Academy for the Performing Arts is a not-for-profit education institution providing world-class performing arts training to young artists. Distinguished faculty and entertainment industry professionals shape Triple Threat® skills of acting, singing, and dancing in a college program that is registered as a private career college under the Private Career Colleges Act, 2005. Faculty and alumni have starred on Stratford, Shaw, Mirvish, Broadway (New York) and West End (London) stages, as well as Hollywood (Los Angeles). Stage projects include Rent, Disney's Beauty and the Beast, Mamma Mia!, Fosse, The Little Mermaid, Hairspray, The Sound of Music, 42nd Street, Dirty Dancing, Chicago, West Side Story, We Will Rock You!, The Wizard of Oz, Jersey Boys, The Producers, Rock of Ages, and Jesus Christ Superstar.

Modeled after the Academy's prestigious college program, the Randolph Kids program provides a safe environment that supports and encourages creative expression and inspires self-motivation and responsibility. Randolph Kids programs are for students who will make a year-long commitment to each and every class. Our highly qualified teachers are actively involved in the professional arts and entertainment industry. All year-long programs culminate in a showcase performance at the beginning of June, filled with dance, songs, scenes and exciting production numbers.
